MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 21.

Ireland Compared to the Saviour. Bishop Keane, of Richmond, preached a magnificent sermon yesterday morning in | SOUTH BOUND. the Irish Franciscan Church of St. Isidore, Rome, on the subject of St. Patrick and the Irish nation, comparing the early glories of Christian Ireland to the transfiguration of Christ on the mount and his after persecution and suffering on the journey to Calvary. He drew a powerful picture of Ireland's condition as the light and teacher of the nations of Europe, her children reaching even to the gates of Rome itself. He described the destruction of Ireland's church, the closing of her schools, the oppression of her people. From this treading of the wine press uncounted blessings were to flow to the world. Once the instructress of nations, Ireland was now held up to the scorn and mockery as foolish and ignorant. As Christ was despised and the most abject of men. a man of sorrows and acquainted of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with infirmity, so was Ireland. God per-mitted the mightiest empire in the worldthe Roman—to crucify His Son, and so was Ireland crucified by the mightiest empire that has existed since the days of Augustus.

Manassas.

Alexandria. that has existed since the days of Augustus.
From her crucifixion her love has gone to the ends of the earth to plant the cross of Christ, and has built up His church everywhere. Jesus lay three days in the tomb, Jesus lay three days in the tomb, where. Jesus lay three days in the tomb, which was sealed with the seal of Cresar and the grangogue. When Easter came he arose in glory. Ireland's Easter is at hand, after three centuries of entombment. The first brightness was Catholic amagination, and it has since because Catholic emancipation, and it has since been slowly but steadily expanding. Life has been returning to that mangled form swathed in grave clothes. Already the trumpet of the Lord is proclaiming "It is Easter morn." Voices deny it, declaring, "There is no resulterection. She has not risen; there is no life in her; they have stolen her from the tomb while we slept." But, although the same mystery of the cross prevails. He who has led her to Tabor and the tomb will just as surely lead her to the new light. God is just to nations. The hour of retribution must come. Erin's crown of reward will be one of joy. God forbid she should ever have ambition to be anything but what God has destined her to be. We nak for ther liberty—not the false liberty which mistaken ones of other nations ask, where they complained of other nations ask, where they complain o the law, seeking anarchy and license, but freedom for impartial justice, for the growth for which God has fitted her, for the pence that she has sought—not the grim peace of blood with which nations delude themselves not the peace of the Lord, like that majestic forgiveness that was granted even to perfid ious Jerusalem. We ask prosperity-no the meek prosperity of hard hearted wealth hovering over festering want, but fire, cioth-ing against nakedness, comfort, instead of the hard, grinding, debasing suffering and persecution of past centuries." The whole sermon was a grand triumphal panegyrie.
The church was crowded with Irish and Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness hi been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY SEVEN YEARS of its existence. its columns has always been found a mire of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in world has ever been its aim. The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurin and near the city, and this feature will as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Rich mond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily-is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, incompared to the least money of any pure goods on the market.
